the deceased asked him that he has become a big person. At that time, a quarrel started between deceased and co-accused - Sameer. In the said quarrel, applicant and co-accused-Siddhant Borkar caught hold of deceased and Amir Maner picked up a stone and assaulted the deceased. At that time, eye-witness Akash More, who was present there, ran away from the spot of incident. A complaint was lodged in the police station against the applicant and co-accused.

3. It is contention of learned counsel for the applicant that Siddhant Borkar, against whom the same allegations are levelled like applicant, has been released on bail by the Sessions Court, hence, the applicant is entitled for bail on principle of parity.

4. It is contention of learned APP that the stone used in the crime has been recovered at the instance of the applicant. The blood found on the stone is matching with the blood of deceased. If the applicant is released on bail, he may threaten the prosecution witnesses, hence, requested to reject the application.

5. I have heard both learned counsel, perused the FIR and charge-sheet. The allegation against the applicant are that he and co-accused – Siddhant Borkar caught hold of deceased and co-accused-Amir Maner assaulted the deceased with stone. Siddhant Borkar has been released on bail by the Sessions Court. Hence, the applicant is entitled for bail on principle of parity.

6. In view of above, I pass following order :
